Gov. Stratton Vetoes Korean Bonus Measure

56-Hour Week for Firemen Also Rejected by Governor

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Gov. William G. Stratton today vetoed bills for a referendum on a Korean war bonus and a 56-hour week for downstate firemen.

Stratton had been expected to veto the bonus bill since he had already signed a measure creating a commission to make a two-year study of the bonus question.

"There were two different approaches and we had to make a decision one way or the other," Stratton told reporters at a news conference called to discuss the vetoes.

The military situation today is "far more complicated" than it was after world wars I and II and the bonus question must be more thoroughly studied, Stratton said in his veto message.

The bonus bill vetoed would have asked voters in the November, 1956, election to approve a 150 million dollar bond issue to pay Korean wartime servicemen $10 a month for domestic and $15 a month for foreign service. The bond issue would have been paid off by pari-mutuel horse race betting and alcoholic liquor taxes.

On his veto of the bill for a maximum 56-hour work week for firemen in downstate cities over 12,000 population, the governor said:

"Conditions vary greatly between cities over the state. The local officials can do the best job of deciding what each city can do best with the means available. We have now given them the means to improve conditions if necessary through new revenue ordinances.

"What may be good in one city may be burdensome in others, but if working conditions are onerous they now have the means to remedy that."

But the governor said if the cities do not take action for decent firemen's working hours then "remedial legislation will be imperative next session" of the General Assembly.

The governor said he would finish action on the 1,165 bills passed within the next two weeks. He again said he will set a new record for vetoes, "both in the number of bills and the amount of money involved."

He indicated he would sign the bill by Sen. Paul W. Broyles (R-Mount Vernon) to require state employees and teachers to take a loyalty oath and banning public employment of subversives.

Cases continued were: Gene Shelton, charged with extortion; James Luster, charged with driving while intoxicated; Lynn Cable, charged with driving while intoxicated; George Fletcher, charged with assault with a deadly weapon; Roy Prince, charged with wife and child abandonment. ## Television Star Fess Parker Dedicates Davy Crockett Highway at Cave-in-Rock

Hundreds of people lined the Ohio river bank at the Cave-in-Rock ferry boat landing Sunday morning to see Fess Parker, the Davy Crockett of television and screen.

Parker is in the Cave-in-Rock region with a crew making television films and he obliged yesterday with a public appearance.

The giant Parker, about six feet five inches tall, was a quiet but affable fellow. He accommodates the public as much as his manager would permit, and several score persons took pictures of him and got autographs during the hour he was available.

Big reason Parker was in the area yesterday to dedicate a portion of highway—Route 1 in Illinois from Cave-in-Rock to Norris City and Route 91 in Kentucky from across the river from Cave-in-Rock to Hopkinsville—as the Davy Crockett highway.

Robert G. Miley of Galatia, superintendent of Illinois state parks and memorials, made fitting remarks at the occasion, pointing to the significance of a movie group from California, a state noted for scenery and sunshine coming to the Cave-in-Rock area to make a picture.

There also were remarks from speakers from Kentucky. Master of ceremonies was James Gullett Hardin county state's attorney.

Parker came over from Morgan field, where the crew is living while the picture is being made, by automobile which crossed the ferry to Cave-in-Rock. He remained on the barge while a barge cable was strung to keep back the crowd.

Following the speaking he christened the highway the Davy Crockett highway, both at the barge and at the Route 1-146 intersection a short distance north of Cave-in-Rock.

The Davy Crockett films are being made for the Walt Disney studios, which will release them over the ABC-TV network. WSIL-TV is on this network.

Six Hurt When Auto Overturns In Pope County

Car Driven by McLeansboro Youth; 5 In Lightner Hospital

Six young persons were injured when the auto in which they were riding overturned on a gravel road between McCormick and Ozark in Pope county about 8:30 last night.

Five are in the Lightner hospital, several reported in serious condition. The sixth was released following treatment.

State police said that the car belonging to John Arthur Johnson, 19, a Southern Illinois university student who resides at McLeansboro, overturned about a mile west of McCormick when the driver lost control on the gravel road.

In the Lightner hospital are young Johnson; Cleo West, 20, of Centralia; Dick Gholson, 21, of McLeansboro Route 1; Richard Wicks, 22, of McLeansboro Route 1; and Barbara Hood, 18, of McLeansboro.

Bruised but not hospitalized was Ruth Weldon, a student nurse at Champaign whose home is in McLeansboro. She freed herself from the overturned car and made her way for a considerable distance to summon help.

Reports were that the group was en route to Lake Glendale to go swimming when the auto overturned. It also was reported that Miss West was Miss Weldon's guest at McLeansboro over the week end.

State police also reported that a car belonging to Guy Pyie, 505 North Jackson street, was damaged early Sunday when struck by a car driven by James Layton of Crossville on Route 13 a short distance west of Harrisburg. The Pyie auto was stopped on the shoulder while he was changing a tire.

A car containing three youths landed upside down in a ditch last night on the Walnut Grove road but there were no injuries. The names of the boys were not learned.

Close Black Top Between State Rt. 13 And Carrier Mills

The black top road connecting Carrier Mills and State Rt. 13 was closed this morning and reports are it may remain closed for three months.

However, provisions have been made to reach Sahara mines 5 and 6 from Carrier Mills. A bypass has been constructed at the first bridge coming from Carrier Mills, which will make it possible for traffic to continue to the two Sahara mines.

The other two bridges on the road are blocked to traffic. All three of the bridges are to be widened.

Halt and Lame Flock to Texas Ranch to Cover Selves With Radio-Active Dirt

COMANCHE, Tex. (AP)—The halt and the lame came by the hundreds today to the ranch of Jesse F. Reese to cover them selves, at a cost of more than a dollar an hour, with dirt from a mildly radio-active pond he has.

Reese, 52, a farmer, is making $200 or $300 a day, from sick persons who hope to get some benefit from dust the Atomic Energy Commission won't bother with. He lives 12 miles from Comanche at the end of a dusty, mesquite-covered road called "Uranium Avenue."

The sign was put up, he said, by Mrs. Fred Hall, a neighbor, who got tired of visitors asking her where his farm is. Reese now has three buildings on his 200-acre ranch where persons with arthritis, rheumatism, spasmodic colic, headaches, sinus and cancer sit from morning until late at night.

Their feet are covered with dust by an attendant. They can bury their hands in a box of dust in their lap. For those with neck and head ailments, there are socks full of dust which they can drape around their necks or across their skulls.

Reese will not say that this will help them at all.

Sign A Statement

In fact, before he will let them sit down, he makes them sign a statement that they are visiting his ranch voluntarily, that they assume full responsibility for the "treatment," that nobody has asked them to come to the farm and nobody has promised them that they will be helped by the dust.

Nevertheless, people flocked to Reese's place and the number is growing every day. He charges each visitor $2 for burying his hands and feet an hour-and-a-half for sitting in the dust.

Reese estimates 5,000 or 6,000 persons have visited the ranch since one day in 1953 when a man from Washington state knocked at his door and asked whether he could sit in his pond.

Marion, Lincoln Expected to Be First to Pass City Sales Tax

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The first adoption of the city sales tax by Illinois municipalities was expected tonight.

Lincoln and Marion city councils both prepared last week to have sales tax ordinances ready for an expected favorable vote tonight.

Other cities also were drafting their own ordinances or had requested a "model" ordinance from the Illinois Municipal League for votes at council meetings this week.

The sales tax will be imposed under a bill passed by the General Assembly and signed by Gov. William G. Stratton. The new law permits city governments by ordinance to levy a 1-2 cent city sales tax.

Other cities, big and little, which have indicated adoption of the sales tax, some this week, include Chicago, East St. Louis, Decatur, Arcola, West Frankfort, Vandalia, Creve Coeur, Belleville, Champaign, Urbana and Mattoon.

In most cases the new city tax would take effect Aug. 1.

Chicago, whose mayor Richard J. Daley got Stratton to make the city sales tax a part of the administration tax program, will have its city council meeting Thursday. Chicago expects the tax to bring it some 20 million dollars in added revenues.

Decatur, which paid $2,510,362 in state 2 per cent sales taxes in 1954, can expect to get about $600,000 from the 1-2 cent city tax if the same rate of buying continues.

The state collects the city sales tax along with the state tax and gets 6 per cent of the city revenues for its collection services.

Will Return to U. S. to Face Consequences

All Three Express Disappointment At Life in Red China

AT SEA, Aboard USS President Cleveland, Tuesday, July 12—Three American turncoats, who once renounced the United States, were enroute home tonight convinced by 18 months in Red China that jail or "even death is better than communism."

The three, who refused repatriation from North Korean prison camps in August, 1953, were placed aboard this luxury liner 10 minutes before it sailed.

They were quartered in a large barracks-like third-class cabin. They had with them only temporary travel documents, good for a one-way trip to the United States. They were in borrowed clothes. And their passage was paid for on money advanced by the U. S. consulate in Hong Kong on their promissory note, for repayment whenever they are able.

But the three said they were glad to be free of Communist rule and were ready to "face the music, whatever it is" for their misdeeds. Anything in the free world, they said, would be preferable to life in the Red "People's Democracies."

All were former soldiers dishonorably discharged from the U. S. Army when they embraced Communism and refused repatriation at Panmunjom after having been taken prisoner by the Reds in the Korean War.

They had worked for a time on a state farm and then in an agricultural implements factory in Red China before changing their minds about Communism and asking to be returned to their own country.

When they crossed the border into Hong Kong Sunday they seemed happy and cheerful. They were held temporarily by the British as "prohibited immigrants" until it had been determined by the U. S. consulate that they had not given up their American citizenship.

Third Class Passage
The American consulate paid for their passage and hotel room here, but the three turncoats signed promissory notes to repay the money when they could. Their accommodations aboard ship were third class.

During a press conference Sunday night the three gave what they claimed were their reasons for refusing repatriation. All claimed they were disappointed at what they found in Red China.

Covart said it would "take several volumes" to tell what happened in Communist China. When asked why he had decided to stay in Red China, he replied: "A child decided not to come home; a man decided to go home."

He said he had "never accepted Communism" and added that all had experiences which proved that the free world was better than Communism.

"We would welcome Hitler back rather than have Communism," he said.

He said he stayed with the Reds because of his fear of "political persecution."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Congress Battles Backstage
Over Medical Research; Mrs.
Hobby Wants Limited Health Appropriation; Joe Martin Admires 96-Year-Old Papa.

WASHINGTON. — While the battle over Salk polio vaccine has been waged in the headlines, another battle involving many diseases besides polio—cancer, heart disease, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy — is being waged privately between a handful of congressmen.
Upon its outcome will depend in part the health of the nation in the next few years.

The public doesn't realize that some of the most vital issues are thrusting out in the backstage conferences between the two conference committees of the House and Senate after a bill has passed. In this case the row is over how much money shall go to medical research, and one argument is between two Democrats — Sen. Lister Hill of Alabama, who wants more money spent on health research, and Congressman John Fogarty of Rhode Island, who wants to stick with Mrs. Hobby's restricted budget.

In the past, Fogarty has been called by Congressman Rooney of New York "the outstanding congressional leader in the field of public health." In the past, Fogarty has battled the meat-axing of Congressman John Taber of New York when it came to chopping
the health budget.

But not this year. This year, for some strange reason, Fogarty seems to be siding with his old, penny-pinching critic, Mr. Taber.

At stake in the argument is about $24,000,000 for the expanded program that Senator Hill has put through the Senate to train more doctors and to dig further for the cures to the nation's number one killer diseases. The program has been approved by the country's top medical specialists and has been passed by the Senate, but not by the House of Representatives.
That's thanks to Fogarty of Rhode Island.

NEW MEDICAL DAWN

Sen. Lister Hill happens to be named for Lord Joseph Lister of London, discoverer of antiseptic surgery. The senator's father studied under Lord Lister and later performed the first successful operation on the human heart. So his son, the senator from Alabama, has a keen interest in medicine and is convinced that medical science is on the verge of great new discoveries.

Cures for cancer, leukemia and heart disease, he believes, are just around the corner. He points out that in the last 14 years, life expectancy has been extended 25 years, chiefly through research into the causes and cures of such major killers as rheumatic fever, appendicitis, influenza, syphilis and TB.

Yet because of the following facts, Senator Hill considers it doubtful that the rate of progress can be maintained without more federal help:

—A shortage of 22,000 to 45,000
doctors.

—A great need for money to finance research.

—Lack of $150,000,000 to build laboratories in which the research can be carried out.

—Urgent need for 600,000 to 800,
000 more hospital beds.

To partially remedy this situation, the Advisory Council of Doctors which helps steer the Public Health Service recommended an appropriation of $139,573,000 this year. Mrs. Hobby, however, wanted only $73,958,000. The Senate then went over the lady's head and gave her an additional $24,000,000 whether she wanted it or not.

ANIMALS VS. HUMANS

Her colleague, the secretary of agriculture, Mr. Benson, gets $51, 079,563 for agricultural research into the cause of Bangs disease in cows, hog cholera, hoof and mouth disease and various other farm diseases and problems. Nevertheless Mrs. Hobby stuck by her measure figure of $73,958,000 for research into human diseases, not the $97,000,000 voted her by the Senate.

And she's been depending on a Democrat, Congressman Fogarty of Rhode Island, to scale the Senate figure down. Various Democrat leaders have gone to Democratic Congressman Fogarty to urge more funds for medical research. Even Speaker Sam Rayburn has urged him to agree to the Senate bill with its higher appropriation. But still the congressman from Rhode Island says no.

JOE MARTIN'S VISITOR

Ex-Speaker Joe Martin is one of the busiest men in Congress. He has to attend White House conferences. He helps chart Republican strategy. He must keep sometimes rebellious Republicans lined up behind him. However, the kindly congressman from Massachusetts has time to do a lot of little things. The other day he told friends this story:

"A few days ago there pranced into my office, nimble and spry as you please, a man from California 96 years old. He recalled to me that he had met me while I was out in his state making speeches last year, and that I had told him to come and see me if ever he visited Washington.

"Well, I remembered, and here I am," he said. Then he told me:
"My son would like to get the President's autograph for him on this photo."

"I asked him, 'how old is your son?' and he said 'fourteen years.'
"Don't you mean your grandson?" I suggested, but he insisted,
"no, my son."

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

"So I got him the President's autograph and told him not to forget to call on me for the same kind of chore whenever there was an increase in his immediate family."

"He said, 'I'll be back'."

Sen. Kerr Scott of North Carolina felt a bit neglected when Senator Langer, his fellow Republican colleague from North Dakota, implied that there were no dirt farmers in the United States Senate.
Senator Byrd of Virginia, the millionaire apple-grower, in Langer's opinion was not a dirt farmer. Senator Scott mildly pointed out in the cloakroom that he was a dirt farmer and had been a dairy farmer all his life. Scott is right. He has long made a living at dairying.

After Senator Butler, Republican of Maryland, tangled vitrioli-cally with Senator Keafauer of Tennessee over the Dixon-Yates project, he sat down on the Senate floor beside Senator Gore, also of Tennessee, and half-apologized.

"The administration," he said, "is so deep on Dixon-Yates that it can't back down. It has to go through." This was the signal which had been given to Republican senators at that time. Shortly thereafter, however, Eisenhower changed the signals.

Blonde and Male Companion Slain, Husband is Held

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Police held on an open charge today the estranged husband of a shapely blonde horsewoman who was fatally shot in the cabin of a swank motel along with her 21-year-old male companion.

The husband, Raymond F. McGowan, a Dallas dairy worker, was brought back to Waco Sunday night from Dallas where he surrendered to authorities. He also surrendered a .22 caliber pistol, police said.

McGowan was held on an open charge. Dist. Atty. Tom Moore Jr. said formal charges would be filed later today. In the meantime, no bond was allowed.

Police found Mrs. Pauline (Polly) McGowan, 26, a shapely rodeo trick rider, sprawled, fully clothed near the door of the cabin when they went to investigate a report of gunshots.

She had been shot once in the left eye and once in the left hand, but was still alive. The body of Bobby Royce Darby, 21, of Arlington, Tex., himself an accomplished horseman, lay nearby. He had been shot twice over the left eye.

Vets Urged to Apply Early to Enter School Under Korean GI Bill

Illinois veterans who plan to start school this fall under the Korean GI Bill were urged today by the Veterans Administration to apply for their papers before school terms begin. By applying for their VA certificates prior to admission, veterans will help to prevent delay in the processing of their papers as it is predicted that a record-breaking number of veterans will begin schooling for the first time this fall.

Robert D. Beer, VA's manager for Illinois, pointed out that the need for applying for initial papers pertains only to those veterans who are starting training under the GI Bill programs for the first time.

It is estimated that 6,000 veterans in Illinois will enroll this fall for the first time in colleges and universities, while approximately 35,000 others will return to their classes after the summer vacation.

Two Illinois Men
Killed in Crash

GORIAM — A Randolph County man and a passenger in his automobile were killed Sunday when a truck collided with his car.
The victims were G. A. Williamson, 67, Sparta, and Dena Hatfield, 59, Ava. Jackson County authorities said a truck driven by John E. Allmon, Lennett, Ala., struck the rear of Williamson's car on Ill. 3 north of here.

Sheriff Howard Cheatham said the truck driver pulled out to pass the car, that Williamson applied his brakes and the truck hit the rear of the car. The car left the highway and ran down an embankment.

Allmon was ordered to appear at an inquest Friday.

Blonde Denied Reprieve
From Hanging in London

LONDON — Home Secretary
Gwilym Lloyd George today resisted a wide public clamor and denied a reprieve to pretty blonde model Ruth Ellis, who is to be hanged on Wednesday for murdering one of her many lovers.

The home secretary said she will be hanged as scheduled at Holloway Prison.

Scotland Yard took extra precautions against public demonstrations in behalf of the blonde mur-derer by persons who had seized on her case to campaign against capital punishment.

THE STORY: Mike Shayne, a private detective, accidentally becomes deeply involved in a murder case and so is his secretary, Lucy Hamilton. He has unwittingly aided the murder and police will question his motives. Then an anonymous phone call threatens Mike with exposure unless he turns over $70,000, supposed to have been in the possession of one of the murder victims.

At precisely 11:30, Lucy Hamilton emerged from the front door of her apartment building and started walking toward 13th Street. She wore a tight-fitting dark wool suit

Mother Strangles Two Young Sons

GARY, Ind. (AP) — Murder charges were prepared today against Mrs. Eloise Gillard, 21, who told police she strangled her two young sons because she "couldn't give them proper care."

Police said Sunday the woman led them to a secluded spot on Gary's west edge and showed them the bodies of her boys, James, 4, and Ernest, 4, lying in a weed patch. Strips of cloth were still knotted about their necks.

Police quoted Mrs. Gillard as saying she drove the boys to the spot Saturday, talked to them about the improper food, clothing and attention they were getting and told them she was "going to do something about it."

She said she put the boys in the back seat, strangled them, and left their bodies along the road, police reported.

Mrs. Gillard said she returned home after driving around aimlessly for a while. She told her husband and he called police.

under the Peiping regime, Cowart said that "the places in China which the world does not see can only be described as hell."

"Just A Poor Fool"

Girgis said he was "just a poor fool" for having refused repatriation in the first place. He said he now was "facing reality" and was "proud to be an American—I am going back to my country."

Bell, whose wife is in Olympia, Wash., said the people of China "hate Communism," but they also "hate Chiang Kai-shek."

They were among 23 American prisoners of war who originally elected to stay in Red China rather than return to the United States. Two, Edward S. Dickenson, of Cracker Neck, Va., and Claude J. Batchelor, of Kermit, Tex., returned to U. S. custody last year and were tried and convicted of collaboration with the enemy. Batchelor was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment, Dickenson to 10 years.

Red China announced in June that another of the original 23, Rufus O. Douglas, of San Angelo, Tex., had died of a "rheumatic heart disorder" with complications.

Several Persons Suffer Heat Prostration In St. Louis Area

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A number of persons in the St. Louis area suffered heat prostration in Sunday's 95-degree weather.

Four persons collapsed in St. Louis and nine teenage marchers in a VFW-American Legion parade at Dupon, Ill., were prostrated.

Illinois and Missouri highway patrols reported traffic normal—for a Sunday—to heavy as thousands fled to the rural areas.

At the St. Louis zoo, Director George P. Vierbelle shut down the animal bird buildings one-half hour early so his charges could escape the increase in heat caused in the buildings by visitors' body-heat.

Bill Sanders, young store manager for the Singer Sewing Machine Co., succeeds Wilbur V. Winchester, at the Singer Center in this city. Mr. Winchester who came to Harrisburg from Cape Girardeau, Mo., as a part of a program of preparation for promotion, is being transferred to St. Louis.

V. M. Lewis, district manager was here last week during a period of orientation at the local store for Mr. Sanders, who wants to move here from Odin as soon as he finds a suitable house, and who has been employed for a year and a half at Centralia by the Singer company.

A husky voice said, "Crawl in, honey. I'm going your way and what's the use either of us being lonesome?"

She was barely able to say, "No, thanks," in a firm voice as she marched on past the invitingly open door.

Then two young girls stopped in another convertible, giggling as they told her it was old-fashioned to walk home from a date; and a shabby coupe with a courteous old gentleman behind the wheel who professed himself profoundly shocked to discover such a young and beautiful maiden in distress.

The next car began to slow some distance behind her. Traffic was lighter now than it had been when she started her walk, and her senses had become attuned to deviations in the speed of cars approaching from the rear.

She kept walking steadily as though unaware of the slowing car, edging farther to the right where a guard fence protected the edge of a steep embankment leading down to the bay waters below.

She nervously shifted her fingers on the package again, setting her teeth together tightly and feeling every muscle in her slim young body tense as a gray sedan drew abreast of her, moving no faster than she, and the man behind the wheel leaned far over to unlatch the right-hand door and swing it open.

"Throw it in, Sister."

Her thumb and forefinger were aching tight about a small round knob that protruded from the side of the package under her arm. She stopped and caught it with her left hand, tossed it lightly through the open door, jerking the small knob loose as she did so.

The car door swung shut and the motor roared and tires screeched protestingly as the sedan leaped forward.

Lucy flung herself sideways over the edge of the embankment as there was a loud explosion in the night from the front seat of the gray sedan some 30 feet distant and accelerating fast.

As she leaped over the guard fence, she saw the sedan lurch violently to the right, and to her horror realized that the fence was down at that point for a space of some 40 feet and there was nothing at all to prevent the car from going over.

She was sliding down the embankment when it hurtled over the edge 100 feet in front of her, doing a lazy somersault in the air and landing with a sickening crash upside down in Biscayne Bay.

Lucy Hamilton landed on hands and knees in loose sand at the foot of the embankment, less than 10 feet from the edge of the water.

After the violent crash caused by the gray sedan landing upside down in the bay directly in front of her, there was almost utter silence as she crouched there trying to orient herself—trying to realize exactly what had happened—trying to think what she should do next.

Michael Shayne hadn't planned it to end like this. She knew that definitely. He had planned and hoped to capture the man alive after she tossed the package into his car.

LET'S GET THE FACTS STRAIGHT ABOUT THE RIVER CONSERVANCY DISTRICT

An Article Appeared in the Eldorado Journal Asking Certain Information. This Article Will Clarify Their Lack of Information.

Mr. Luke Barnhill, Bert Ward, Edgar McCue, Harold Barnes and C. H. James started work on the Flood Control Project over five years ago, and their Project has been approved by the U. S. Army Engineers, and is now awaiting Congressional action. Of the Committee, Mr. Barnhill, Mr. McCue and Mr. Barnes are deceased, Mr. Ward is a retired farmer and not active any longer. Mr. James has been asked to help on this Conservancy Project, but he refused to do so, as he stated that the people in Saline County do not have the backbone to get out and fight and work for the best interest of Saline county.

Now in reply to questions asked by the Regional Water Resource Development Committee and the Directors of the Eldorado Chamber of Commerce in the Eldorado Daily Journal issue of July 6, 1955:

1. This proposal is not the same one that had been previously voted down. This program was started last February when a Committee met with the Eldorado Chamber of Commerce, wanting assistance in a Reservoir project. The Committee advised the Chamber that no money from the Federal Government could be used on a lake or reservoir project—that under the existing law a River Conservancy District would not be able to sell any water that it impounded. However, this Committee advised the Chamber that they would try and have the law changed, which has been done. This law has passed both the House and Senate, and is now before the Governor for his signature. This amendment gives the River Conservancy District the POWER AND AUTHORITY TO SELL WATER TO ANY INDUSTRY AND MUNICIPALITIES, which sale will be of big help in defraying the cost of the District. Also no tax money will be used for the purpose of cleaning, deepening and widening the North Fork, the Middle Fork and the South Fork, as all of this cost will be borne by the Federal Government. THE ONLY TAX MONEY THAT WILL BE USED ON THESE DITCHES IS THE CLEANING OUT THAT WILL BE NEEDED IN FIVE OR TEN YEARS AFTER THEY ARE CLEANED OUT BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

2. The taxes collected by the District would be used for the benefit of all of the people, excepting Brushy township.

3. The proposed conservancy district would not be limited to channel clearance, the main purpose of the proponents is interest in the development of water conservation, by the building of Reservoirs; also making recreational grounds around each reservoir that could be used by all of the people. The building of these reservoirs, would mean that we would then be in a GOOD POSITION to induce large industries to locate in this section, as we would have a large supply of water. The District is empowered by law to build one or more reservoirs, whatever is needed for the development of this area and soil conservation.

4. No program has been proposed by the Saline River Conservancy District group. They do not have any authority to make any plans, as this group is made up of volunteers, who are working for the betterment of Saline County. When the Saline River Conservancy District is voted in, then the County Judge appoints a Board of Trustees, and no one knows who this Board of Trustees will be.

5. No State or Federal Funds have been appropriated or made available for drainage purposes in this area, as there is no legal organization that the State or Federal Government can deal with, but we will advise you, that the Appropriations Committee at Springfield recommended that $100,000 be appropriated in the 1954 session but this lost by one vote on the floor.

6. If Federal Funds were made available and the proposed work completed by the Army Engineers, there would be permanent employment for a number of workers in keeping these projects in workable condition.

7. The Conservancy District is empowered to build as many reservoirs as are needed to meet the requirements of the people of the District. We are confident that the Board of Trustees appointed by the County Judge will work with all Municipalities in the District to work out a satisfactory arrangement, whereby sufficient amounts of water will be impounded to take care of all future needs for water by the towns and Cities in the District, also enough water to take care of several large industries or manufacturing concerns that may locate here, on account of a large water supply. As far as recreational facilities are concerned, the law specifically states in chapter 42, section 392 a, paragraph (d) "Said board shall have the power, if it shall find it conducive to the public health, comfort or convenience to acquire sufficient lands contiguous to its reservoirs for the establishment of recreational grounds and the right to permit said reservoir or reservoirs to be used for recreational and to construct on said grounds a building or buildings and other improvements for such recreational purposes."

We believe that the above answers all of the questions asked for by the above committees.

In the Eldorado Daily Journal of July 7, 1955, Mr. Jesse Chandler, president of Labors Association for Industrial Development, advised and urged all members of LAID and Eldorado citizens in general to vote against the River Conservancy District, as he stated he was not convinced it met the needs of the community. We also understand that he immediately left Eldorado to look for work. Why did he not stay at home and help to work out something so that labor would be able to find work. Also in The Harrisburg Daily Register of July 7, 1955, in "Timothus T's" column he states he received a letter from a 16-year-old boy who asks in part,

"What can a young boy or girl do after high school here in Harrisburg (this same condition exists in Eldorado also)? They leave home to find work or else stand on street corners and loaf. Would the families and boys and girls like to be back in Harrisburg with their families and friends they grew up with? I am sure they would. BUT CAN THEY? NO."

Folks, this is your opportunity to help make a bigger and better Saline County, to help secure new industries here, as a large number of industries are now looking for new locations, but bypass Saline County on account of not sufficient water supply for large users of water. WE CAN SECURE THIS LARGE WATER SUPPLY if you will vote YES tomorrow on Conservancy District.

TO THE WOMEN VOTERS: Are you interested in keeping your children at home after they leave high school, also in having your husband have a job; if so, then get out and vote and work for the Organization of the River Conservancy District.

There is a large amount of money available for work of this character by the Federal Government, also State Government, if we have a Legal Organization that they can deal and work with.

SO GET OUT TOMORROW AND WORK FOR THE ORGANIZATION OF THE SALINE RIVER CONSERVATION DISTRICT.

Williams, Mantle, Kuenn Swing Hot Bats to Tune Up For All-Star Game Tuesday

By United Press
The American League All-Stars are supposed to lack the punch of their National league rivals but don't be surprised if Ted Williams, Mickey Mantle & Co. turn Tuesday's 22nd mid-summer classic into a slugfest.

Williams, Mantle, shortstop Harvey Kuenn and third baseman Jim Finigan all demonstrated in Sunday's games that they're swinging hot bats with a combined batting of 6 home runs and 13 runs batted in. All told, the quartet produced 11 hits in 27 at bats for a .407 mark. With them showing the way, the A. L.'s eight starters came up with a .354 average.

The National league's seven certain starters and one likely starter meanwhile, produced only one home run and four runs batted in Sunday's games although they combined for a .292 average. Ted Kluszewski accounted for the homer, No. 29 for the Cincinnati slugger, and Red Schoendienst, Ernie Banks and Duke Snider drove in one run each.

Williams, who'll carry a .393 average into his 11th All-Star game, clouted his 12th homer of the year to help the Boston Red Sox defeat the Baltimore Orioles, 10-7. The blow sent the Red Sox off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning but they had to rally for five runs in the eighth frame to score their 14th victory in 16 games and 29th in 36 games since June 3 when they were 10 games below the 500-mark. Today they're firmly entrenched in fourth place and only two games behind the second-place Cleveland Indians.

Yankees, Senators Split

Mantle, the A. L.'s starting center-fielder, unfurled three homers and drove in a total of four runs as the New York Yankees split a doubleheader with the Washington Senators. Mantle hit two off southpaw Dean Stone in the opener although the Yankees lost, 6-4, and then blasted No. 21 of the season as New York took the nightcap, 8-3.

Kuenn hit a homer and drove in three runs and Ray Boone hammered in five runs to spark the Detroit Tigers to a 10-1 triumph after the Kansas City A's won their opener, 9-5. Kuenn had four hits in nine at-bats and drove in four runs during the doubleheader while Jim Finigan sparked the A's with three hits, including a homer, and knocked in two runs.

Virgil Trucks and Sandy Consuegra combined in a five-hitter to give the Chicago White Sox a 4-2 triumph after the Indians won the opener, 5-2. All-Star rookie Herb Score suffered the second game loss for Cleveland although Bob Nieman's two-run homer off Mike Garcia actually produced the winning run. In the opener, Art Houtteman gained credit for his sixth win with relief help from Don Mossi and Ray Narleski.

In the National league, All-Star pitchers Gene Conley and rookie Luis Arroyo came through handsomely to score their 11th and 10th wins respectively.

Braves Extend Win Streak

Conley struck out six batters and yielded eight hits as the Milwaukee Braves ran their winning streak to six games with a 7-4 decision over the Redlegs. Cincinnati bounced back, however, to win the second game, 7-6, on Wally Post's two-run ninth inning homer and leave the Braves 11-2 games out of first place despite a 17-7 pace since June 16.

Arroyo scored his 10th victory against three losses with a workmanlike seven-hitter that gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 7-2 triumph over the Chicago Cubs. The Cardinals backed him with an 11-hit attack that included a homer by Stan Musial and three hits by Schoendienst.

Willie Mays singled through Brooklyn's drawn-in infield to cap a two-run ninth-inning rally that gave the New York Giants a 3-2 decision over the Dodgers. Paul Giel gained credit for his second major league win as the Dodgers suffered their seventh loss in 13 games.

Curt Simmons pitched a six-hitter as the Philadelphia Phillies triumphed, 4-1, but the Pittsburgh Pirates came back to win the nightcap, 3-1, as Vernon Law tossed a six-hitter for his sixth win.

DOUBLE DEAL

Lawrence, Kans. (NEA)—Al Frame's mile and two-mile double for Kansas in the Big Seven outdoor meet was the swiftest compiled in conference history. His aggregate clocking was 13:44.4, with a 4:16.5 mile and a 9:27.9 two-mile.

Tommy Bolt Wins St. Paul Open Tourney

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Tommy Bolt, the reformed "bad boy" of the links was the new St. Paul Open golf champion today because he confided his "thunder" to his drives.

The fiery, 36-year-old Texan, who used to smash clubs and lose tournaments, played it calm in the 72-hole meet here and it paid off with the title—his third this year—and $2,400.

He blasted from three strokes behind Sunday to edge little Jerry Barber of Los Angeles by two strokes and win with a 19-under par 269.

Bolt came within three strokes of the tourney record of 266 by Lloyd Mangrum in 1951 and Cary Middlecoff in 1952.

Barber, who had fired a record 129 on the first two rounds and led until the last nine holes, was second and took $1,800.

"I've learned you don't win by getting excited," Bolt said. "I really had to play hard. Jerry is a fine golfer and I almost had to run my heels off to catch him."

Bolt also gave credit to Ben Hogan for helping him improve his drives when they were in Fort Worth, Tex., a month ago. He apparently also picked up some of Hogan's coolness.

The hard-driving Texan, playing out of Chattanooga, Tenn., this year, added the title to earlier ones from Tucson and San Diego.

Arnold Palmer, Latrobe, Pa., and Fred Hawkins, T. Andrews, Ill., tied for third with 273.

Wally Ulrich of Rochester, Minn., was fifth with 276, and Dow Finsterwald of Bedford Heights, Ohio, and Doug Ford of Kiamasha Lake, N. Y., tied for sixth with 277.

Behind the first seven finishers were Bud Holscher, Apple Valley, Calif., and Bob Rossburg, San Francisco, with 278s.

Bunched at 279 were Dave Douglas, Newark, Del.; Mike Souchak Grossinger, N. Y.; Porky Oliver Lemont, Ill.; Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex.; Jerry Kesseling, Orono, Can., and Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa.

Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., had 280.

Roberts, Pierce Named Starters For All-Star Tilt

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Robin Roberts and Billy Pierce today were named the starting pitchers for the 22nd annual All-Star game Tuesday.

It was the fifth All-Star starting assignment for Roberts, a Philadelphia Phillies hurler, and tied an All-Star mark set by Lefty Gomez.

National league manager Leo Durocher of the New York Giants followed pre-game predictions and chose the Philadelphia right-hander over Brooklyn's Don Newcombe.

American League manager Al Lopez of Cleveland fooled the experts slightly by overlooking his own Early Wynn and naming Pierce. He picked the little Chicago White Sox left-hander to start against a National League lineup loaded with left-handed hitters.

Lopez said he would follow Pierce with Wynn, Pierce, who has a 5-6 record this year, with the White Sox, started the 1953 All-Star game at Cincinnati and gave up no runs and only one hit in three innings.

Durocher chose Del Crandall of Milwaukee to start as catcher in place of the injured Roy Campanella of Brooklyn.

The scoring was sporadic in this contest; both teams coming up with three runs in their first turn at bat. However, Corydon picked up one run in the third and two in the sixth for their margin of victory while the Legion could do no further damage after the first stanza.

'Flash' Griffiths with a single and double paced the Legion's eighth-inning offense. Dick Odle, Bob Dallas, Harold Gulley, Fred Williams, Dick Romonosky and Bill McNew picked up the other hits. O'Nan and Wallace had two hits each for the victors to lead their seven-hit offense.

Dick Romonosky worked all the way behind the plate for the Legion with Fryer doing the catching for the Lions.

Next Sunday the Legion will travel to Kentucky again when they play at Uniontown.

Baseball Player, 19, Killed by Thrown Ball

ORLEANS, Ind. (AP)—A 19-year-old baseball player was killed Sunday when he was struck on the head by a thrown ball.

Barry Hodson was running to second base when a ball thrown by the opposing shortstop hit him on the head, during a double play attempt. He died almost instantly.

Hodson was playing for the Orleans team in an amateur game with New Albany. He was son of the Orleans team manager, Orville Hodson.

The Corydon Lions downed the Harrisburg Legion Sunday afternoon by a 6 to 3 count at the Corydon field to average the 5 to 0 white-wash the locals had administered to them here July 4th.

Jim Wallace was on the mound for the winners and after having been tagged for three runs in the first frame he settled down to hold the Legion scoreless the rest of the way despite numerous scoring opportunities the locals muffed by ineffectual base running. Bill McNew was the Legion's hurler but he had control trouble most of the time that he was on the mound. The winners were handed six bases on balls and a couple of hit batters to go along with the seven hits they garnered.

The scoring was sporadic in this contest; both teams coming up with three runs in their first turn at bat. However, Corydon picked up one run in the third and two in the sixth for their margin of victory while the Legion could do no further damage after the first stanza.

Equal Benefits for WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) said he would introduce a bill today to give women in government service the same benefits as men.

In a prepared statement, Morse said "there is a curious inequality between men and women in the Civil Service Retirement Act."

He said the surviving children of male government employees are entitled to receive annuity payments based upon the government service of their deceased parent. But he said, there are no such benefits available for the surviving children of female government employees.

"This inequality in law was brought to my attention," Morse said, "by a woman who is employed in the federal government in Portland, Ore."

Seven Democrats and one Republican, all members of the Senate Committee on Post Office and Civil Service, joined with Morse in co-sponsoring the legislation.

Academy Tonight

DENVER (AP)—Top Air Force officials turn their fondest dream into reality today when they dedicate the United States Air Force Academy at 7 p. m. EDT.

Gen. Nathan Twining, Air Force chief of staff, and Air Secretary Harold Talbott will dedicate the new academy at its interim site on Lowry Air Force Base here. Then, the first class of 306-hand-picked cadets will be sworn in by Col. Robert Stillwell, commandant of cadets, while planes of the Strategic Air Command and the crack Air Force "Thunderbirds" perform an aerial salute.

Twining, who arrived here Sunday with his wife and Gen. Carl Spaatz, ret., emphasized that the academy would not improve the caliber of Air Force officer material. "It's already good," he said, "but the academy will give them more specialized training."

He said the recent Soviet display of airpower over Moscow "didn't frighten the United States, but it showed Russian plane production was farther ahead than we realized."

Talbott was accompanied by Maj. Gen. Ralph Royce, ret., when he arrived Sunday. Royce commanded the first squadron of U. S. planes in France during World War I.

Included among the early arrivals was Mrs. Henry H. Arnold, widow of General (Hap) Arnold, considered the father of the modern U. S. Air Force.

In addition, attaches from 47 foreign countries and many Air Force and other dignitaries were to be on hand for the dedication.

The temporary site consisting of 60 buildings at a cost of one million dollars, will be used until 1957 when the 126 million dollar permanent site north of Colorado Springs will be ready.

Ad Medium, Tide
Magazine Reports

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite network television's "phenomenal" growth, newspapers are still the favorite medium of 100 top national advertisers. Tide magazine said today.

Tide analyzed the ad budgets of the 100 leading advertisers in an effort to determine just how TV's meteoric rise has affected other media.

In 1950 newspapers accounted for 39.3 per cent of all the money spent for national advertising by these companies. In 1954 their share had slipped to 31.4 per cent.

Television, which accounted for only 5.1 per cent of the top advertisers' budget in 1950, was a strong second last year with 30.3 per cent.

Hardest hit by TV's big rise was its cousin, radio. Between 1950 and 1954 radio's share of the total dwindled from 25.2 to 12.1 per cent. Magazines showed the least change, their share easing from 30.4 per cent in 1950 to 26.2 per cent last year.

He was survived by his widow and was preceded in death by a daughter, Katherine, who was assistant state superintendent of public instruction when she died in 1953.

You can buy crayon sticks to fill in and stain small scratches on mahogany or walnut woods. Apply the crayon, then rub with an oiled pad. After you've finished the spot repairing, go over the entire surface of the furniture with your regular wax or polish.
